

MIGRATIONS

Migrations is a word born with the moves that the animals do in a regular, periodical , along specific routes, and covering distances even very large, but they are always followed by a return to the starting areas. The movements of populations are considered migrations, too.

WHY?

- For economic problems
- For working
- For war
- For poverty
- For religions problems
- For political problems

Definitions

- ▶ The immigrant is a person who leaves his country to go and live permanently in another country
- ▶ Ethnic minority is a group of people from a particular culture or of a particular race living in a country where the main group is of a different culture or race.

- Nationalism is the desire by a group of people who share the same race, culture, language, etc. to form an independent country or a feeling that your country is better than others.
- The asylum seeker is a person asking for political protection.

- The community are all the people who live in a particular area country and share the same religion, race, job, etc. or the feeling of sharing things and belonging to a group in the place where you live .

- Immigrants are expected to behave in the same way as the indigenous population

WHITE

COLORED

- Separation-apartheid is a political system in which only white people had full political rights and other people, especially black were forced to live away from white people, go to separate school, etc...
- The repatriation is the act of sending or bringing somebody black to their own country.

